

Course Description

The Risk Management approach is an important subject discussed in the medium and high companies. Each time more the managers have more preoccupation and looking for the best Risk Management methodology for your business. In this course the methodology used is the Magerit, also used and applied for the Spanish Government.

Along the course, a study case is proposed, and developed in cooperation between the students and the teacher. There is no 'right' solution, we take the case as a driver for discussing actual concerns of the attendants, and typical questions.

Who Should Attend

CISO's, Information Risk Managers, IT Managers, Quality Managers, Auditors and professionals interested and Risk Management.

Benefits to your Business

Continues improvement, and know about a new methodology and tool for apply to your business.

Course Structure

a. Risk Analysis Elements

- Assets: discovery, dependencies, and valuation
- Threats: discovery and valuation
- Potential impact and risk
- Safeguards: discovery, applicability, and valuation
- Residual impact and risk

b. Risk Management

- Security [improvement] plan
- Impact and risk indicators: progress control
- Cost analysis
- RoSI (Return On Security Investment)
- Business continuity (intro to, tool usage)
 - 50% devoted to "theory", explaining concepts, practical approach, and the methodology itself. The aim is to help practitioners to know how to carry out, and how to manage a risk management project.
 - 50% devoted to tool usage, on a working example to discover to which extend the tool helps, and when experts are needed to take decisions

Investment:
Contact us

Partner:

Organizer:

